

Resolution

Interstate Mining Compact Commission

BE IT KNOWN THAT:

WHEREAS, Gregory E. Conrad has served as Executive Director of the Interstate Mining Compact Commission (IMCC) for 30 years; and

WHEREAS, Greg has provided superlative leadership skills and dedicated service during these years that have contributed greatly to addressing the important natural resource, environmental protection, and mine safety and health issues on behalf of all of the IMCC member states; and

WHEREAS, Greg has grown the organization as a result of his knowledge, skills, and expertise to be recognized as a relevant and credible source of technical and policy information related to the mining industry and the state regulatory programs that oversee such mining activity in the U.S., and

WHEREAS, Greg has now chosen to retire from his executive position with IMCC to pursue his other interests, passions, and life goals; and

WHEREAS, Greg will be greatly missed in his professional service to IMCC;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

That the member states of the Interstate Mining Compact Commission, who have had the honor and privilege of working closely with Greg Conrad over the years, express their sincere appreciation and heartfelt thanks to him for all he has done on behalf of the states and IMCC and wish him all the best in his retirement from public service.

BE IT ALSO RESOLVED:

That the states' delegates who have been fortunate to work closely with Greg Conrad honor him for his outstanding character and the positive relationships that he has forged over many years of dedicated service to IMCC, and bid a fond farewell to him with high hopes that he will continue to have the blessings of friends, family, and deity for many years to come.
